

Old Stone Church, Built 1796, Lewisburg, W. Va.

DISTRIBUTED BY BARR-TOPHAM CO., LEWISBURG, W. VA.

The Old Stone Church was erected in 1796 and is the oldest church unrestored and in continuous use West of the Alleghenies. During the Civil War, it was used for an emergency hospital and also billeting troops. Each year hundreds of tourists visit this historic spot in the rich Greenbrier Valley.
